

$100,000 Settlement For Motor Vehicle Accident

A 50-year-old plaintiff was struck by a driver who disregarded a red traffic light and injured her spine. She sought immediate treatment at the hospital and underwent a course of conservative care, consisting of chiropractic care and physical therapy. After some time, plaintiff underwent MRI studies of her cervical spine, which indicated two herniated discs, which were pressing on her spinal cord. She then underwent a three-level fusion surgery in her cervical spine.

The case settled on April 1, 2019 for the policy limits of $100,000.
