

$375,000 Settlement Following Street Sweeper Accident

Christopher L. Musmanno, personal injury attorney with Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, reached a settlement in the case of a Plaintiff, age 31, who was injured when the van he was driving was struck by a street sweeper that disregarded a stop sign. Plaintiff suffered injuries to his back, shoulder, and knee, all of which required surgery to heal. The case was settled for a total amount of $375,000.