

$550,000 Settlement Following Intersection Accident

Christopher L. Musmanno, personal injury attorney with Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, reached a settlement in the case of a Plaintiff, age 64, who was injured when a commercial truck ran a red light and struck his vehicle. Plaintiff sustained injuries to his lower back which caused persistent pain for several months and ultimately required a fusion surgery to prevent further injury. The case was settled for a total amount of $550,000.