

$650,000 Settlement Following Tractor-Trailer Accident

Christopher L. Musmanno, personal injury attorney with Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, reached a settlement in the case of a husband and wife who were sideswiped by a tractor-trailer that merged into their lane. Both plaintiffs received physical therapy, chiropractic care, and injection therapy, all of which failed to heal their pain. The female plaintiff required neck surgery. The case was settled for a total amount of $650,000.
