

$900,000 Personal Injury Settlement Featured in New Jersey Law Journal

Christopher L. Musmanno, Chair of Einhorn Barbarito's Accidents/Personal Injury Practice, is quoted in a New Jersey Law Journal article about the $900,000 settlement he reached for his client. The article, "$900K in Drunk-Driving Case," outlines the injuries Musmanno's client sustained in a high-speed, head-on collision with a drunk driver. The drunk driver was criminally charged in the matter with assault by auto, driving while intoxicated, and reckless driving. The lawsuit claimed that he had been drinking at a local tavern and was served alcohol despite his visible intoxication. Musmanno commented, "A team approach yielded a wonderful result for the client who is terribly injured because a bar decided to serve an intoxicated person and let them drive."

Click here to view on Law.com. (Subscription required.)

Placement

New Jersey Law Journal, "$900K in Drunk-Driving Case," November 10

<https://www.law.com/njlawjournal/2022/11/10/workers-job-site-fall-nets-8-million-recovery-in-passaic-county/>