

About Us

Established in 1961, Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, PC, is a comprehensive, full-service law firm devoted to serving a broad range of legal needs. With offices in Denville and Sparta, New Jersey, and New York City, our firm has earned a reputation for dedication to the legal profession and to the community. We are proud of the depth of our experience, creativity, and acumen in assisting clients through all of the stages of their lives and all of the phases of their businesses.

Our firm represents a diverse base of clients, from individuals and families, to public and private companies, entrepreneurs and institutions. We employ multi-disciplinary teams on behalf of clients to leverage experience in focused areas of concentration that include business/corporate and employment law, commercial litigation, accidents/personal injury and workers' compensation, matrimonial and family matters, zoning and real estate issues, wills/trusts and estate planning, criminal defense, assisted living/senior residential legal issues, special education, estate/trust and probate litigation, and taxation.

Our Appellate Practice Group handles emergent and non-emergent matters before the New Jersey Appellate Division and Supreme Court. The firm's efforts across a wide range of subject matter have resulted in a number of recent precedent-setting decisions. We are active in writing and/or arguing in amicus efforts for both the New Jersey State Bar Association and the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, and regularly lecture with justices, judges, and practitioners regarding appellate and Supreme Court practice. Additionally, our attorneys are skilled in handling appellate arbitration of issues previously tried by arbitrators.

We handle a spectrum of cases from the straightforward to the complex, from transactions to trials, and our experienced litigators are well equipped to handle sophisticated cases across all subject areas. Regardless of the size of the case, each client receives the same level of high-quality, thoughtful and compassionate legal counsel. In complicated cases, the knowledge, skill and experience of a partner are often paired with the collaboration of an associate attorney to ensure that the matter is handled in the most cost-effective manner possible.

Through our unique On-Call for Business program, the firm also provides cost-efficient counsel to small- to medium-size businesses on an as-needed, on-demand basis, serving as an outside general counsel on business matters.

Clients rely on our attorneys because they know we provide the responsiveness of a local firm with the effectiveness of a regional powerhouse.

Our Roots and Our Growth

Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, PC, was founded more than 60 years ago as a small law office in New Jersey. Over the years, the firm's leaders have implemented the founding lawyers' vision to carefully and methodically build Einhorn Barbarito step by step. Today, we have three offices for the convenience of our clients, and our attorneys handle matters at the local, state, and federal levels.

Since its founding, our attorneys have been active in community organizations, received high honors and awards in the legal industry, and have served in leadership positions in the legal community. Our senior attorneys have cultivated reputations for excellence by building long-lasting relationships with clients through high-quality work, and they pass these principles to younger associates.

The firm is, in fact, built on this guiding principle: provide exceptional quality for every client, every step of the way. With that foundation, we continue to evolve. By embracing technological innovation and understanding our clients' changing business and personal needs, we provide counsel throughout New Jersey and New York, making us hometown lawyers in any hometown.

We are here to grow with our clients for success now and in the future, regardless of what life, business or other circumstances bring.
