

2019 – Day 3

This afternoon, we celebrated with an Ice Cream Social by Cliff's Homemade Ice Cream!

"Today is officially Administrative Professional Day. At Einhorn Barbarito, it's a standing tradition to celebrate Administrative Professional Week. It's a week-long celebration to show our Administrative Support Personnel that we appreciate the hard work and dedication they put forth this week and every week to service our clients. We are fortunate to have some amazing people on our team and we thank them for everything they do." - Kurt Brown, Executive Director
