

Alma A. Godinez associate

agodinez@einhornlawyers.com | 973-532-7001

Alma A. Godinez is an Associate with Einhorn Barbarito and a member of the Accidents/Personal Injury practice. She focuses her practice on guiding clients through all aspects of personal injury matters including accidents, medical malpractice, and products liability.

Prior to joining Einhorn Barbarito, Alma clerked for the Honorable Yolanda Adrianzen, J.S.C. in the Passaic Vicinage in the New Jersey Superior Court. While attending Rutgers Law School, she served as a program coordinator for the law school's Child Advocacy Clinic. Alma also interned at the Rutgers Intellectual Property Clinic.

During law school, Alma served as the inaugural fellow for the law school's Center for Immigration Law, Policy, and Justice, where she co-authored a symposium essay published in the Southwestern Law Review. During her final summer in law school, Alma worked as a summer associate at a firm where she focused on civil rights litigation and commercial law. Prior to attending law school, Alma worked as a paralegal in a small boutique firm.

Bar Admissions

New Jersey, 2021

New York, (admission expected 2023)

Education

- Rutgers Law School, J.D., 2021

- Publication Editor for Volume 47 of the Rutgers Computer and Technology Law Journal

- Dominican University New York, B.A. cum laude, 2017

Professional Affiliations

- Member, New Jersey State Bar Association
- Member, Hispanic Bar Association of New Jersey

Practice Areas

- Accidents/Personal Injury