Advising New Jersey Businesses on Formation and Organization Matters

While starting a new business presents an exciting opportunity, the process requires extensive planning and sound decision-making. The business and corporate law attorneys at Einhorn Barbarito have extensive experience advising clients on the planning, organizing and structuring of new and existing businesses. Since 1961, our firm has been providing proactive business legal counsel to companies throughout the state of New Jersey. We understand the challenges confronting business owners and are committed to making sure that you have the advice and information you need to get your enterprise off to the right start.

Helping Clients Select the Right Legal Entity for Their Business Enterprise

Forming a new business involves many decisions, including the choice of the entity or legal structure for the company. Our business and corporate lawyers regularly counsel clients on the various structural options available to new businesses, including:

- C Corporations
- S Corporations
- Limited Liability Companies (LLCs)
- Limited Partnerships
- General Partnerships
- Sole Proprietorships

Whether this is your first time launching a new business or you are looking to expand a current enterprise, we begin the process by taking the time to understand your goals and motivations. Our lawyers will explain the advantages and disadvantages associated with the various legal entities, most notably tax and liability considerations, and recommend the entity that best suits your business venture. By carefully listening to your plans for your business, we can help you build a foundation that sets your company up for success today and into the future.
