Colin Chudzik is Counsel in the firm's Commercial Litigation practice group where he focuses on representing businesses and insured clients in civil and liability matters, including personal injury defense, in state and federal courts throughout New Jersey.

In addition to his litigation practice, Colin serves as a mediator. His mediation experience helps inform his litigation strategy and strengthens his ability to assess risk and pursue practical, efficient resolutions. Prior to practicing at several New Jersey defense litigation firms, Colin served as a law clerk to the Hon. James F. Hyland, J.S.C., in the Superior Court of New Jersey.

While earning his J.D. from Rutgers School of Law, Colin served as a managing editor of the Rutgers Law Record and interned for the Hon. Joseph Paone, J.S.C., in the Superior Court of New Jersey. He earned his B.S. from the Fordham University Gabelli School of Business.
