

Tiffany Heineman and Adrianna Cassiere Allen Join Commercial Litigation Group

Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, PC, is pleased to announce that Tiffany L. Heineman has joined as counsel in the firm's Commercial Litigation Group, along with associate Adrianna Cassiere Allen and legal assistant Cat Simonelli. Prior to joining the firm, Heineman had a solo practice in Byram Township, New Jersey, in Sussex County, along with Allen and Simonelli.

"We are pleased to welcome Tiffany, Adrianna, and Cat to the firm and look forward to working together on commercial litigation matters. Tiffany's experience with businesses across the state is impressive, whether she is counseling business startups or advising established companies on contract negotiations or disputes," said Gary S. Botwinick, Co-Managing Partner and Chair of the firm's Wills, Trusts & Estates and Taxation practice groups. "Her approach to client service aligns well with our own in helping clients 'every step of the way.' She previously worked with Adrianna and Cat in her solo practice, and we welcome them all to our team here."

"Our team is thrilled to join Einhorn Barbarito, which has a strong reputation for excellence throughout the state of New Jersey and shares our mission and community values," noted Heineman. "I designed my practice in Sussex County with a commitment to businesses in our communities and built it on the foundation of conscientious and cost-effective legal service tailored to each client's needs and goals. It is rewarding to join a firm like Einhorn that has curated a dynamic team dedicated to responsive representation across a full suite of legal services, and we are honored to be a part of the Einhorn team."

Heineman focuses her practice on business and contract litigation, as well as general counsel work including assistance with commercial land transactions, shareholder transactions, business formation, contract review and drafting, and general business consultation. She also works on commercial and residential real estate matters, advancing her clients' interests in negotiations, drafting and reviewing purchase and lease agreements, and helping resolve landlord and tenant disputes. Heineman's practice has also focused significantly on personal injury litigation, having successfully represented numerous severely injured clients at trial.

Heineman earned her J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law, and her B.A. from the University of New Hampshire. She served as a judicial summer intern for the Honorable William J. McGovern, III in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division and returned as a law clerk upon graduating from law school. Active in the legal and local communities, she is a member of the New Jersey State Bar Association and the Sussex County Bar Association, as well as the New Jersey Association for Justice, and is regularly invited to speak at continuing legal education courses. She serves on the board for Girls on the Run New Jersey North, a girl's empowerment organization, and is a member of the Grant Review Committee for Impact 100 Garden State, which engages women in philanthropy by collectively providing high impact grants to New Jersey nonprofits.

Adrianna Cassiere Allen is an Associate in the firm's Commercial Litigation and Accidents/Personal Injury practice groups. She received her J.D. from the Widener University School of Law and her B.A. from Rutgers University, Livingston College. Upon graduating from law school, Cassiere Allen clerked for the Honorable Mark M. Russello of the Superior Court, Law Division Bergen County. Her prior legal experience includes defense work in personal injury cases and personal injury protection arbitration.
