

Einhorn Barbarito Criminal Defense Lawyer Matthew Troiano Appears on "48 Hours" in an Investigation of the Case of Lizzie Borden

---

It was a vicious double homicide in 1892 that captured the attention of the nation, but was never truly solved: did Lizzie Borden really murder her father and step-mother with a hatchet? CBS Correspondent Erin Moriarty and "48 Hours" investigate the story of Lizzie Borden by taking a fresh look at a very cold case with re-enactments of the trial. Criminal defense lawyer Matthew Troiano, of Einhorn Barbarito, plays the role of Lizzie Borden's defense attorney, viewing the facts and evidence from the time of the crime as well as from today's perspective, and the case turns up surprising results. "Lizzie Borden Took An Axe" airs on Saturday, March 28 at 10/9c on CBS.

Watch the sneak peek below.