

Matheu Nunn Appointed As Morris Township Prosecutor

On February 15, 2012, the Morris Township Committee unanimously appointed Matheu D. Nunn, Esq. as the Morris Township Prosecutor. He will be sworn in on March 1st and serve through the end of 2012.

Matheu, a lifelong resident of Morris Township, follows a long line of family members in service to his hometown. First, his grandfather, George Nunn, Sr., was a member of the Morris Township Police Department before joining the Morris Township Fire Department; his uncle Benjamin Rideout was the Chief of Police; his uncle George Nunn, Jr. was a highly decorated detective in the department; and Matheu's father, Thomas Nunn, Sr. will be retiring from the Morris Township Police Department after 44 years of service.

Additionally, prior to joining the law firm, Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, PC as an associate, Matheu was the Morris County Assistant prosecutor. Einhorn Barbarito is a full service law firm in which Mr. Nunn's skills are being used in the Criminal Department as well as the Matrimonial and Family Law Department.

"This appointment," he said, "is something that I am excited to receive. I've always believed that those individuals who are fortunate enough should serve their communities in some capacity. And, in that regard, I am honored to serve mine."

The lawyers of the New Jersey law firm of Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, PC practice in a wide variety of areas, including Personal Injury and Workers' Compensation, Criminal Law, Family and Matrimonial Law, Employment Law, Closely-Held Business Law, Trusts & Estates/Taxation, and Real Estate and Zoning. Because of the firm's years of experience and breadth of practice, these accomplished attorneys offer their clients' legal services through all of the stages of their lives and all of the phases of their businesses and can handle their case from inception to settlement or trial through appeals.
