

Christopher Musmanno To Present Seminar On Personal Injury Cases In New Jersey

Denville, NJ — On August 27, 2014, Christopher L. Musmanno, Esq., Chair of the Personal Injury Department of Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, PC, located in Denville, New Jersey, along with other counsel, will be presenting a full day, comprehensive seminar for the National Business Institute entitled Litigating Slip, Trip and Fall Cases in New Jersey.

The seminar, which will provide attorneys in New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania with Continuing Legal Education credits, will focus on real world litigation strategies that attorneys need to know when handling a personal injury case. Mr. Musmanno will discuss the issues which occur when first taking a personal injury case including initial case assessment and how to screen potential clients to ensure they are not frivolous cases, the presence, timing and severity of the injuries, the potential liable parties, and sorting out the insurance coverage issues.

The National Business Institute is one of the largest providers of continuing education for attorneys and other professionals. To register for this event please go to www.nbi-sems.com.
