

Einhorn Barbarito Elevates Three To Counsel

Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, PC is pleased to announce the promotion of three attorneys to Counsel effective January 1, 2019: Christine M. McCarthy, Matthew S. Rheingold, and Kristi L. Terranova.

“It is a pleasure to recognize the achievements of Christine, Matthew and Kristi with their promotions to Counsel,” said Patricia M. Barbarito, Co-Managing Partner of the firm. “These skilled lawyers are dedicated to their practices and provide excellent service and strategic counsel to their clients. We are proud to work with them here at Einhorn Barbarito.”

McCarthy joined Einhorn Barbarito in 2014 as an associate, and focuses her practice on personal injury litigation, including work-related accidents, medical malpractice and product liability. McCarthy earned her J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law and her B.A., summa cum laude, from Ramapo College. Upon graduating from law school, she served as a law clerk to the Honorable David H. Ironson, J.S.C., Morris County, New Jersey. She has been recognized by Super Lawyers as a Rising Star in 2017 and 2018.

Rheingold joined Einhorn Barbarito in 2015 as an associate, focusing on tax, trusts and estates. He provides counsel regarding wills and trusts, estate administration, charitable planning and business succession planning, and also represents clients in controversial estate litigation and tax dispute matters, including negotiations with the Internal Revenue Service, New Jersey Division of Taxation and the New York Department of Taxation. Rheingold received his LL.M. in Taxation from New York Law School, his J.D. from Touro College, Jacob D. Fuchsborg Law Center, and his B.S. from Syracuse University.

Terranova joined Einhorn Barbarito in 2015 as an associate, with a focus on matrimonial and family law. An experienced litigator, she has both trial and appellate experience representing clients in divorce, custody, equitable distribution and domestic violence issues. Terranova, who is active within the legal community in several leadership roles, received her J.D. from Widener University School of Law and her B.A. from Gettysburg College. She has been recognized by Super Lawyers as a Rising Star from 2015-2018.
