Elder Law Services

The elder law attorneys at Einhorn Barbarito have extensive experience working with individuals and families throughout New Jersey to address the various challenges associated with growing older. We are sensitive to the fact that these types of issues can be very confusing and emotionally taxing for all parties involved. We focus on developing individualized plans and strategies that allow the elderly to live as fully and independently as possible. We also help our clients take the right steps to protect and preserve their hard-earned assets for future generations.

The estate planning attorneys at Einhorn Barbarito are prepared to address the full array of legal issues that arise when people are approaching their elder years. We counsel and represent clients statewide on all types of elder law matters, including:

- Estate Planning (including living wills and powers of attorney)
- Will and Trust Preparation
- Guardianships
- Probate and Estate Administration
- Long-term Care Planning
- Medicaid Planning and Qualification for Benefits
- Veterans Benefits
- Involuntary Commitments

Tailoring Elder Law Advice and Solutions to Your Individual Situation

At Einhorn Barbarito, we are committed to helping our clients find the right answers and solutions to their elder law problems. Whether you are a senior in need of our elder law services, or you are a family member acting on a senior's behalf, we will take the time to listen to your needs, concerns, and wishes. Our role is to provide you with a clear understanding of the law and the legal options available so that you can make the best choices for your individual situation.

While planning for the aging process is never easy, the earlier you start, the more tools and techniques will be available to you. Depending on where you are in your life, you may be able to take advantage of different strategies that will provide the support and assistance you need while helping you maintain your financial security.

Because every client and every family situation is unique, our New Jersey elder law attorneys do not use a standardized plan— we take a customized approach in each matter that we handle. Additionally, when elder law issues involve areas of law beyond our immediate practice group, our clients have direct access to attorneys working in practice areas throughout our firm, including our Taxation, Real Estate, Family Law and Business/Corporate Law Departments.
