He is a fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel and holds an LL.M. in Taxation from New York University.

Botwinick and the other Leaders in Law honorees will be recognized at an awards ceremony on March 31 at The Marigold in Somerset.

Selection for the NJBIZ Leaders in Law is based on a two-phase nominations process followed by a review by an independent panel of judges primarily comprised of honorees from prior years. Each submission is scored in five categories: professional accomplishments, achievements, community involvement, impact, leadership and vision.
