

Law360 Features News of Tiffany L Heineman and Adrianna Cassiere Allen Joining Einhorn Barbarito's Commercial Litigation Group

Law360 covered the arrival of a team of attorneys and a legal assistant to the firm's commercial litigation group, stating that counsel Tiffany L. Heineman, whose solo practice in Sussex County was thriving, felt a mutual synergy with the firm. Tiffany said, "Having the same impact on my community as a larger firm, but providing the excellent and personalized service of a small community firm, was and is incredibly attractive to me," she said.

Co-managing partner Gary S. Botwinick said, "Tiffany's experience with businesses across the state is impressive, whether she is counseling business startups or advising established companies on contract negotiations or disputes," Gary said. "Her approach to client service aligns well with our own in helping clients 'every step of the way.'"

Read the full article here: Commercial Litigator Brings Team To Einhorn Barbarito (subscription may be required).