

Matheu D. Nunn Co-Authors “Getting a ‘Get’ – An Alternative Avenue for Relief?”

Matheu D. Nunn, co-chair of the Einhorn Barbarito’s Family/Matrimonial Practice, and Eliana Baer, a partner with Fox Rothschild, discuss one of the few areas of family law unaddressed by the New Jersey Supreme Court in the New Jersey Law Journal article “Getting a 'Get'—An Alternate Avenue for Relief?”

The article discusses the tensions between Jewish law and the First Amendment and the unique set of challenges for couples seeking a divorce. Nunn and Baer provide insight into current case law and outline various ways that civil courts have approached the issue of a “get” in Jewish divorces while balancing the constitutional concerns regarding decisions involving religious laws.
